RATIONALE

The educational landscape in our city, like many others in the Philippines, faces several challenges that require urgent attention and collaborative efforts to address. Conducting an education summit provides a platform to bring together various stakeholders, including educators, students, parents, industry leaders, and policymakers, to discuss and develop strategies for improving the quality and accessibility of education.

In fact, our City Mayor Vilma Balle-Caluag has always been a staunch advocate for educational initiatives that benefit the youth and the community. In line with the principles of EDCOM 2, the mayor supports this education summit as it aligns with his vision of providing high-quality, accessible education to all students. She believes that by investing in education, we are investing in the future of our city. Her backing of the summit highlights the local government’s commitment to continuous improvement and innovation in education.

Conducting an education summit in our city is a strategic and essential step towards addressing the challenges in our educational system. The education summit aims to foster collaboration, develop targeted reforms, and enhance educational outcomes. By aligning with the objectives of EDCOM 2, this initiative underscores the commitment of our city’s leadership to the betterment of education and the empowerment of our students.

OBJECTIVES

- ✚ Validate EDCOM II Findings: Discuss and verify the EDCOM II findings within the local context of San Fernando.
- ✚ Enhance Education Policies: Formulate strategies to integrate EDCOM II recommendations into local education policies.
- ✚ Assess Current Programs: Evaluate the current status of ECCD, Basic, Higher, and Technical Education in San Fernando.
- ✚ Develop a Local Education Blueprint: Collaboratively create a comprehensive education blueprint for San Fernando.
- ✚ Stakeholder Engagement: Provide a venue where all stakeholders’ voices, sentiments, desires, and aspirations regarding the education of our youth – the hope of the city – can be expressed and considered by the City’s Local Chief Executive (LCE) and Sangguniang Panlungsod.
